We received nearly 116 submissions from across ASEAN, primarily from banks, with several vendor-submitted entries on their behalf. Initial shortlisting was conducted by banking and fintech analysts, focusing on truly unique initiatives. These were then reviewed by ASEAN Fintech Forum awards judges, many of whom are former bankers and regulators, for final validation and verification.

“These awards serve as a platform to not only celebrate achievement but also to inspire the broader ecosystem to continue pushing boundaries.” – Cyrus Daruwala, Chairman, ASEAN Fintech Forum
